

May Newsletter

Welcome to our May update. We are endeavoring to keep all our services running as usual as the COVID-19 situation continues. Our helplines remain open so if you or someone you know needs help remember you can always book a call or access our guides and resources. We are also continuing to roll out our training virtually, read on to see what we have available.

News and updates

One small step for tackling the coronavirus pandemic, one giant leap backwards for children and young people with SEND?

IPSEA is very concerned about the impact of the temporary changes introduced by government which significantly dilute the responsibilities of local authorities ("LAs") towards children and young people with SEND.
