

Nottinghamshire Independent Domestic Abuse Services – Chief Executive

Permanent role subject to 6 months probationary period
37.5 hours per week
25 days annual leave + Bank Holidays

About NIDAS

NIDAS are a small, friendly and independent local charity working across Mansfield and Ashfield in Nottinghamshire. We offer a family-based approach for people who are living with or have experienced any form of domestic violence or abuse. We have a team of highly experienced and qualified workers who have supported 1,000's of families to live a life free from harm.

About the Role

NIDAS is seeking an experienced leader who has a proven track record in managing a dynamic and growing organisation. Leading a committed team, you will be driving the strategic leadership of NIDAS. You will also play a key role in the wider Nottinghamshire Domestic Abuse forums.

Supporting a board of trustees, you will ensure financial sustainability and be responsible for the operational delivery of the Charity's strategic plan.

You will have full responsibility for NIDAS, providing strategic oversight and management of Services in NIDAS. This includes an oversight of NIDAS projects and family services.

Taking the lead on governance, income generation and retaining overall oversight of Services, you will bring your experience of managing and mitigating risk, governance and performance management to ensure the organisation meets all its legal and regulatory requirements.

You will be an ambassador for NIDAS building on our long-standing history of supporting families who have experienced domestic abuse and ensure that NIDAS upholds its vision and mission by developing and sustaining high quality services to support and promote the needs of families affected by Domestic Violence.

Teamwork and collaboration in leadership is essential, working with the Service Delivery Manager to ensure that goals are achieved through effective management practices and staff are motivated and supported to build strategic, long term and sustainable services.
