

The Peter Barratt Special Needs Fair

Wednesday 24 August 2022

11:00 – 13:00 with food until 14:00

Bramcote Hills Park, Coventry Lane, Bramcote, Nottingham, NG9 3JT

The Peter Barratt Special Needs Funfair is for persons with additional needs, including the terminally ill, and those with special needs and/ or learning difficulties. The general public will not be admitted. The Fair is now an annual event. Children, adults and their parents or carers and immediate siblings are welcome. Special needs toilet facilities are provided.

Booking: unless you are booked in you will be refused access to the Fair as places are strictly limited and these will already have been allocated DO NOT JUST TURN UP HOPING TO GAIN ADMISSION. Entry to the fairground will be from 10:30am. Bookings and all communication will be by email only and will usually only be responded to at the weekend.

Transport: transport to and from the site for groups of children and parents or carers can be arranged but must be applied for in advance and will be assessed individually. Contact Gordon Cowieson via bramcotefair@yahoo.co.uk before the event if transport is required.

Rides: all rides will be free of charge. No adults are allowed to access the rides without children. Plenty of helpers in high-visibility tabards will be on site to assist. A qualified and equipped St Johns ambulance will be on site. All showmen ride owners will be in attendance, and will have the final say as to which persons they feel will be safe on, and enjoy each ride. The showmen carry public liability insurance, via the Showmen's Guild and the fairground site and rides will be fully compliant with Health and Safety requirements.

Refreshments: each child or person with additional needs will be given a wristband on arrival, all children and siblings will be given a book containing vouchers for free of charge, one burger or one hot dog, candy floss or ice cream plus one cold drink. Whilst the immediate siblings of those with additional needs are welcome, and can go on the rides, free refreshments will be provided for them at our discretion. Parents or carers can purchase food if required. 'Sibling' refers to brothers and sisters only, not cousins and friends. Any other children will not be insured whilst on the Fair during this event.

Contact: for further details and to answer any queries contact Gordon Cowieson by email only at bramcotefair@yahoo.co.uk note that Gordon can only answer emails at weekends.
